THIS PAGE HOME CIRCI IS

LANSBURGH & BRO.

HIS WRAPPER Only 68c

Made of good washable calico in the true blue, neat stripes and figures. Plain princess style, lined to the yoke front and back. Plaited back, turnover collar, leg o'mutton sleeves. The skirt is full and long. All sizes-32 to 44. Only-

68c.

Remember, we guarantee the fit of our wrappers. The length and width is all right-we promise you thatand the material is washable, and to think-all this for only-68c.

ansbuigh & Bro

420, 422, 424, 426 7thSt.

S. Kann, Sons & Co. 8th and Market Space.

Twenty-inch Black Surah. Very fine quality of Silk. The grade we have been selling at 30c-Today

S. Kann, Sons & Co. 8th and Market Space.

16c.

Ladies' Dress Skirts

of Black Figured Mohair, with rustling lining and velvet binding, $1,39.

904-906 7th St.

UNDERTAKERS. 832 Pa. Ave. N. W.
First class service. Phone, 1385.

DIED.

DIED.

WILLIAMS—Emmia D., suddenly, at 8:45 p. m., Monday, February 17, 1896, at the residence of her nephew, Wilson Harvey, 721 Tenth street northeast.

Interment at Baltimore on Wednesday. DUNN—The residues of Marcella and Edward P., the beloved wife and son of James M. Dunn, will be taken from the want and baried at Mount Olivet Cenciery on Wednesday, February 19, 1896, at 3 a check, the weather permitting, or next fair day.

TYLEE-Monday pight, February 17, 1896. George W. Tyler, lieutenant commander, U. S. N. Funeral services 11 a. m. Thursday, at the residence of his brother, W. O. Tyler, 226 R st. nw. Interment at Brattleboro, Vt. Friday.

SAVORY—J. Albert, beloved son of James A. and Mamle Weens Savory, departed this life, Tuesday, February 18-96, aged twenty years, ten nombs and twenty two days, at his parents' residence, 205 Tenth street southenst.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

NO PAIN

Evans' Dental Parlors,

Fresh Laid Eggs.

You cannot improve on a nice fresh egg—the trouble is to get fresh ones. We look after that Our Fancy fage are put up in one dozen patent rocket boxes, and every egg is guaranteed fresh. The price is no higher than others sak for interior qualities.

WILKINS & COMPANY. Square Marble and Glass Stands, Conter Market

DINED HIS COLLEAGUES AND THE PRESIDENT

Secretary Morton the Host at a Unique Feast.

Ices Were Served in the Shape of Vegetables and All Was Harmonions With His Office.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland were he guests last evening at a dinner given by the Secretary of Agriculture and Miss Morton, at the Portland.

The dining room was decorated for the ecasion, the celling being garlanded with milax and the mirror frames illuminated with red, white, and blue lights, and trimmed with smilax. Red carnations banked the mantels.

The table was ornamented handomely with appropriate designs. A plow, adde of scarlet carnations set in ferns. formed the center piece, and scarlet shades capped the silver candelabra. Wheel-barrows of span sagar were filled with apples and green peas; a farm wagon filled with hay was used to serve the ices, and may stacks of span sugar set amid the flowers were also among the decorations. Terrapia was served in majolica counter parts of itself; ices and punch were served as pears, peaches, and other fruits. Cakes were in the form of artichokes, tomatoes, and other vegetables. Name cards bore a symbolic oak and the inscription. Plant trees."

Guests of the Secretary of Agriculture and Miss Morton were President and Mrs. Cleveland, the Vice-President, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Omey, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Treasary and Mrs. Carible, the Attorney General and Mrs. Harmon, the Secretary of the Navy and Miss Herizert, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer.

variety of cutsine, the work being done by the Portland chef.

Justice and Mrs. Brown gave a dinner last night in honor of Mrs. McKee. Guests were Gen. Foster, Mr. Bax-Iron sides, Miss Mitchell, Miss Pitts, Miss Mr. gan, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Mercer, Mr. Somow, Mr. Bowers, Mr. Frank Jones, Miss McMillan and Miss Warfield.

The Daughters of the Revolution were out in full force yesterday afternoon to attend the reception given by the New York delegation to meet them, at the Arlington Hotel. The beautiful decorations of the Asembly ball remained for the adornment of alsome rooms, which were crowded from 5 to 7 o'clock. Ladies who received were: Mrs. Donald McLeau, Mrs. Janvier Le Duc. Mrs. Francis Johnson, Mrs. Storey, Mrs. Clarence Postley, Mrs. John Stanton, Mrs. James Fairman, all of New York.

ington Barracks last evening by Miss lossen. The spacious home of the young ostess was preftily decorated with flowers, and the conservatory made picturesque by a number of Japanese lanterns. Super was served at 11 o'clock and music for dancing in the large drawing-room played all evening. Mrs. Closson assiste er daughter in receiving, wearing black satin; Miss Closson wore white mouse-laine de sole and carried violets. The nen wore uniforms, which gave a characterstic suggestion of the occasion. Among the guests were: Miss Kelton Miss Chamberlain, Miss Miles, Miss Ennis Mrs. Heiner, Mr. Archibnia Campbell, Mr. Whitney, Dr. Francis Lieber, Mr. Will Lieber, and a number of others.

The wedding of Miss Mary P. Nipuno to Mr. David C. Balentine, deputy collector of customs at Springfield, Ohio, took place it noon yesterday at the Church of the Covenant, Mr. Kennon Fortescue of New York, and Mr. Harry K., Willard were ushers. Dr. Teunis Hamlin officiated and following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Balen ine received the congratulations of their riends. The bride, who entered the church with her cousin, Mr. Joseph Nimmo, wore gown of gray cloth, and hat trimmed with pompadour ribbon and white algrettes. After June 6 Mr. and Mrs. Balentine will reside in Washington at No. 922 Fifteeuth street northwest.

Dr. and Mrs. Sprigg entertained at a delightful reception yesterday afternoon. The affair was a "house warming," they having but recently moved into their beautiful new home, No. 1015 Sixteenth street. The house was decorated throughout with palms and roses. Dr. and Mrs. Sprigg received the guests tanding in the colonial reception hall and were assisted by Miss Belle Hagner, Miss Clagett, Miss Jane Fuller, and Miss Baker. Mrs. Sprigg were a white silk gown trim ned with gold embroidered net.

The table was spread in the dining-room, which was decorated like the drawingcoms and reception hall. The table decorons were formed principally by the attractively designed dishes of salads, tea and ices. Many callers greeted

Dr. and Mrs. Sprigg during the afternoon Mrs. Fendall, daughter of Mr. Galt, gave a tea in honor of Miss Bolling of Virgin ia, at No. 1409 H street, yesterday, from 4

Mrs. Fendali, assisted by Mr. Galt and Miss Balling, received the guests in the first drawing-room. The Misses Conrad, Miss Harlan, and Miss Johnson did the honors of the tea table, the decorations of which were pink roses and rose-shaded

The bouse was decorated throughout with American Beauty roses, calla lilies, palms and garlands of green.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Shepard Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patterson, to Mr. Edward J. Taylor, took night at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was per-formed by Rev. Dr. Elliott, rector of the

The ushers were: Prederick H. Patterson of New York, Charles H. Patterson, brothe of the bride; William Gieskieng and Mr Alphonse Rice. The bridesmalds were: Miss Alice Almuth of New York, and Miss Grace Chandlee, and were gowned in white silk rimmed with chiffon

The bridal choral from "Lobengria announced the approach of the bridal party, which came in in the following order: Two ushers came down the right nisie and the two bridesinaids the left, followed on the one side by the best man, Mr. James E. Tucker, and on the other by the maid of honor, Miss Julia Patterson wearing pale yellow sik and chiffon and carrying yellow roses. Simultaneously the bride entered the center aisie with her brother, Mr. Walter B. Patterson, the father not being well enough to attend and were met at the chancel by the groom and Rev. Dr. Elliott.

The bride, a tall stately blonde, were a beautiful gown of white satin, trimme with chiffon, her talle vell held in place by pearls, and among the pearl orns worn was a pearl pendant, one of the bridal gifts. Bride roses were the flowers carried. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and 1314 W street, which find previously been placed in readiness for them. Owing to a recent death in the groom's immediate family, they did not hold a reception. A Washington author of much promise Miss Mabel Nelson Thurston, of R street northwest, has the place of bonor in this week's Youth's Companion, to which she contributes a charming story, entitled,

Mrs. Taylor went to their new home, No.

PATRIOTISM TOLD IN TUNEFUL SONG

in Social Session. Addresses Illustrated With Music Were the Unique Feature of the Daughters of the Revolution Met

Probably there never has been a convention of women which did not arrange for pleasure as a factor of some particular part of the programme. East night's session of the fifth annual congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the Revolution did not include anything else. It was given over entirely to social features; and, simply told, it was a really grand affair.

Evening's Proceedings.

The rostrain of the Church of Our Father ad been temporarily enlarged into a spacious stage, and was embellished with ounting and evergreens, with incandescent lights peeping out from openings in the foliage. The red, white and blue adorned the gallery rail as being the chief article of decoration, hanging in graceful festoons here and there throughout the church.

Pretty girls from all sections of the country acted as ushers and a fair Virginian served programs, all being attired in even-ing costumes. Every seat, down stairs and up, was taken, and the aistes being filled with chairs, did not, even then, accom-modate the multitude which pressed into the church. Many had to stand, and the newspaper men were among these. The tables they had used in the daytime were put in the rear and used as seats.

SOCIAL FEATURE PREVAILED. It was an occasion of a fashionable outouring. Full dress, with both women and men, prevailed. Upon the stage were seated those who were to take part in the program. The president-general, Mrs. John W. Foster, oc cupied a central position. To her right were the seven Connecticut daughters, who were melodiously illustrate the historical paper of Mrs. G. F. Newcomb of New Haven These had their hair powdered and

Paris Hints for Evening Gowns

"Sopronia Baker." It appears on the first page of the paper, and Taylor illustrates it. Aside from her successful literary work, Miss Thurston will be remembered as the first young woman admitted to Columbian University, from which institution, two years ago, she received the degree of M.A.

Mrs. George W. Smith, wife of Representative Smith of Illinois, was at home the last time formally this season yesterday afternoon at 918 Fourteenth street Assisting Mrs. Smith were Mrs. Sanders, daughter of Representative Loud of California, in black silk and chiffon, and Miss Murphy of Illinois, in black silk, tricimed with yellow chiffon.

The drawing-rooms were decorated with pink carnations and roses. Pink roses. pink shaded lights, and pink and white confections were on the table. Mrs. Smith wore a gown of black satin. with bodice of pink silk and lace.

of this city, to Mr. Garret P. Reilly of Pennsylvania, took place Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. at St. Joseph's Church, the Rev. F. Schmidt officiating. Mr. W. A. Butler acted as best man, and Miss Julia. C. Butler as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the reception was held at the bome Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Butler, Mrs. M. Sloan, the Misses Flynn of Pennsylvania, N. Dougherty, M. McDevitt, M. Boyce, C. Boyce, Minnie Butler, Messrs. M. F. and F. P. Reilly, F. E. Barnes, of Cleveland, O. C. Ready, D. Keefe, D. Willis of New Jersey, J. F.

Butler, and Jay J. Butler. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly will start on an extended wedding tour the latter part of Dr. and Mrs. Von Hartleben entertained the German-American Club at a leap year nasque ball last night at their home. No. 1015 Fourteenth street. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with palms and flowers. In the dining-room a buffet supper was served during the evening.

The leap year idea was carried out in all details of the evening's amusement. The ladies were white domines and white masques and the gentlemen were in regulation evening suits and wore black masques Some of those present were the Misses Geddes, Dr. Wells, Mr. Talmadge, Mr. Cason, Miss Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Michelson, the Misses Van Entress, Mr. Bynitzki, Mr. Norris, the Misses Abert, Prof. Coleman and Mrs. Hazard.

Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, regent of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, gave a reception to the Philadelphia Chapter of the D.A. R. and the visiting and resident daughters now in Washington, in the ballroom of the Shoreham, from 9 to 12 o'clock last night. Mrs. E. H. Ogden, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. James Rhode, Mrs. Clement A. Griscom Mrs. Edwin Rungerich-Smith and Mrs. Bogg assisted in welcoming the guests. The baliroom and corridor were beautifully decorated with baskets of palms and daisies. From small tables in the ballroom punch, ices and coffee were served. There were present during the evening many hundred guests. Mr. Archie Crawford, the English bartone, whose superb voice is so well known to society folk in Washington, is at the

A pleasant masquerade party was given Monday at the residence of Mr. L. M. Sousa, 500 Seventh street southeas Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Butler of Hamburg are visiting at the home of Mrs. Samuel Miller, corner of Fourth and C streets southeast, arranged in the style in vogue in Colonial days.

There is a large delegation of daughters present, representing nearly every State on the Eastern seabcard, and many others have daughters in attendance. New England has a specially large representation.

The social session was opened by Mrs. Foster announcing to what the evening vould be devoted. Mrs. G. F. Newcomb read a paper she had "Songs and Ballads of the American Revolution." She gave a history of a long list of airs popular in the time when the Republic was being born. which was "illustrated" by the singing of the old times and the recitation of two ballads of the same period, concluding with the elebrated anthem written in 1770, "I am the Rose of Sharon.' ILLUSTRATED WITH SONG.

After the history of a special piece it ould be sung by the Connecticut daughers, Mrs. S. S. Thompson, Miss Gertrude Sandford, Mrs. E. L. Frothingham, Miss Ella M. Belden, Mrs. A. B. Treat, Mrs. N. W. Foote all of New Haven, and Mrs. N. F. Rockwell of Meriden.

The first three are sepranos and the others ontraites. The recitations of the ballads was done by Mrs. Grace Brown Salisbury

New Haven. Madame Antoinette Sterling of Loudon, descendant of a Mayflower pligrim, accompanied by Prof. Fanciulli of the Marine Band, sang "The Pilgrim Fathers," as sung by our grandmothers and great-grand-mothers, which was followed by the Marine Band playing "Hail Columbia." Miss Susan R. Hetzel recited "A National Hymn," a patriotic composition by Dr. John Henry Hopkins, and then Mrs. Cuthbert Harrison Slocomb read the report of the national hynm committee.

It was a voluminous paper, in which great interest was felt, as its adoption will nost probably mean what the national hymn actually is to be, but it was not specific, leaving the choice to one of several which, any one of them, was thought fitting and proper. This matter of a decision on the bynin will be one of the matters of business of today's

WAS A MUSICAL PROGRAM. The remaining portion of the program was altogether musical. Of this portion Miss Anna B. Yearman was director, Miss Nannie Rondolph Bail chalrman, and Miss Gertrude Burgess and D. C. MacLeod acompanists. But one solo was given, "Song of Freedom," Archie Crawford of New

The other numbers were choruses, male and female, all of Washington singers, sons and daughters, all of them. The ladies sang "Our Western Land," "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," "Patriot Daughters," and 'Great Western Land." Ladies and gentle men sang "Home and Country." The gentle nen sang "United States," "Our Giorious Land," and "We March to Victory.

The daughters in the chorus were Misses Edna Doe. Mattingly, Elizabeth Ball, Midlleton. Wilson, Sigsbee, McKee, Dalrymple, Young, Gary, sopranos; Misses Wilbur, Yerreil, Valk, Tabler, Roberta Allen. Wadsworth, Brown, Tyler, Sarah Yeatman, Kleinsmith, aitos.

The sons singing were Messrs. W. D. McFarland, H. C. Pearson, G. F. Johnston, C. E. Rice, D. C. MacLeod. Hymn and doxology by Marine Band. chorus, and audience followed, and the session was adjourned by the president general. At the afternoon session reports of officers and committees were read. 2.7 Suspicions.

They sat in the dim-lighted parlor, And the old folks thought they behaved, Till they heard her say to their horror: "Oh, Jack! you ought to get shaved!"

-New York World.

King's Palace.

Cold Weather Prices.

$10.87 Jackets, Capes and Gretchens,

$3.00 Brilliantine Skirts, $1.49. Just received a new lot of as-sorted Erilliantine Figured Skirts, made in latest style, incet throughout, full width, velvet bound..... 1.49

$12 Figured Silk Skirts. $7.50. lust 10 handsome Figured Silk Skirts, full 53-4 yds. wide, made in latest style. full gored; while they last at.

Merino Underwear. 39c

Heavy Ribbed Underwear. 33c

King's Palace,

812-814 Seventh Street.

In the Nick of Time

We have just purchased a large lot of Fine Capes at less than half their value.

An extra fine Double Beaver Cape, satin finish. Well worth

For $4.48.

Also a very fine Beaver Cape, extra wide, satin finish, that sold

Now $3.00.

MISS BARTON MAY ENTER.

Sublime Porte Grants Her Safeguard

Into Armenia A cable dispatch received at the State Department yesterday from Alex. W. Terrell, United States minister to Turkey, dated at Para, the European quarter of nstantinople, contained the intelligence that the efforts of Miss Clara Barton, presi-dent of the American National Red Cross, to obtain the permission of the Turkish gov ernment to distribute relief to the suffer ing Armenlans, had been successful.

The decision of the sublime-porte not to allow relief measures to be extended by the Red Cross as an organization or by its officers as such, made it doubtful whether Miss Barton and her party would succeed in their object. It appears from Mr. Terrell's dispatch that Miss Barton been presented by the minister at the porte, and had received renewed assurances of full protection and aid for her agents in dispensing charity. Her assistants, says Mr. Terrell, go a nce to the interior. Miss Barton's head quarters will be at Para. The dispatch ends "The door is thus opened wide for charity."

Amelie Rives Chanler Married. The marriage of Mrs. Amelie Rives Chanler to Prince Pierre Troubetzkoy of Russia took place yesterday afternoon at Castle Hill, the ancestral home of the famous other once popular romances. The marriage of Mrs. Amelie Rives Chanler was not a surprise to most society folks. who knew of the attachment and wooing of the Russian nobleman, who now claims the accomplished and beautiful Virginian

The romance which ended in the arriet sarriage yesterday, began in London, where the prince has a handsome residence, and is otherwise reputed to be as wealthy as the traditional Russian prince of the novels. Mrs. Rives Chanler has spent most of her time abroad, and has been held in high esteem for her talents and beauty in English society. Among her many admirers the prince has drawn the prize. The marriage was solemnized in the presence of only a few friends, the ceremony having been performed by the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Menzel, of Richmond. In addition to the members of the family there were present Miss Julia the authoress, and Mr. Allen Potts of Richmond.

The prince went in person for his marriage Heense, accompanied by Mr. Potts, to Charlottesville. They then drove out to Castle Hill, where the marriage ceremony was held.

The honeymoon will be passed at Castle Hill, with the father of the bride, Col. Alfred L. Rives, as host. The only regret to the many friends of the bride, is that she will make her permanent home in London Washingtonians in New York. (Special to The Times).

New York, Feb. 18 .- Mrs. F. H. Howe, Gilsey; G. F. Whitting, J. Hornblower, F. Bancroft, Holland; H. Calver, Albermaric; A. M. Clery, E. R. Jackson, Coleman; M. Ebeles, Union Square; F. I. Harder, Grand Union; P. Kernan, St. Cloud; Mrs. T. B. Harrison, Continental: J. M. Histon, Broadway Central; F. J. Lomis, Hoffman; R. S. Lythe, Union Square; E. A. Pettis, Sinciair; E. A. Sturtevant, Sturtevant; C. M. Headicy, Park Avenue; E. M. Marbie, C. A. Root, Metropole; I. Whitney, Windsor.

deliberate man, isn't he? Mrs. Slowman-Indeed, he is,

Mrs. 8lowman-Never! He plans every movement with the utmost deliberationand lingers studiously over every detail. I have often thought that if he ever dies suddenly it will be an awful shock to him. Richmond Dispatch.

Discovered.

On Second Floor of My Store

416 Seventh St.

Sale will be conducted by Messrs. Latimer & Co. each day between the hours of 10 and 12 a. m. and 2 and 5 p. m.

Comfortable seats are provided. Requiring the room for departments which I will enlarge, I am determined to make quick work of the closing out of my stock.

Dress Goods, Pomestics, Blankets & Upholstery Goods

at auction and at private sale.

TUESDAY, FEB. 18. - We will make a special

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19.—Curtains, Blank-ets, Portieres and Table Linens.

Special low prices on private sales. Twenty-five per cent off all Dress Goods, Domestics, Blankets, Comforters and Upholstery Goods. Some goods reduced to half the original selling price,

We Are Closing Out Our

Less Than Half Price.

$1.00 Blankets go at 53c pair $2.00 Blankets go at 98c pair $1.00 Blankets go at$1.39 pair $5.00 Blankets go at$2.39 pair Comforts from 29c upward.

ALL OUR Ladles' Cloaks, Cloth Capes and Plush Capes are being SLAUGHTERED for almost nothing. 55, 86, $7 and $8 Coats at $3.49 $10, $12 and $15 Conts at $4, 98 $1, $5 and $10 Handsome Boucle

Desermanns

505 Seventh Street N. W 1924-1926 Penna. Ave.

THE NEXT THEATER TOY. Get next Sunday's Times with the Cattle Red Riding Hood" theater toy Don't fear, there will be enough to supply all demands.

Buy all you want—one, two, three or more—the supply will be inexhaustible—and you can give one to each of your children and send it to far away little relatives. ittle relatives. The Sunday Times and the toy to gether will only cost three cents never was a time in the history of the Furniture low as they are right NOW Sedroom and Dining oom Furniture below COST.

819-821-823 7th St. N. W. SELAKEN R VAD I MET

Mrs. Lizzie South, of 910 Third street southeast. Washington, says: "I took BROWN'S IRON BITTERS for low fever. and it improved my general health and gave me a good appetite."

Marriage Licenses Licenses to marry were issued yesterday the following Nathaniel Dixon and Alice Gaskins, Frank Nass and Anna Vogel.

Edward Jones Taylor and Margaret Shep John F. Landes of Staumton, Va., and Luiu Middleton of Middleburg, Va. John Bernhard and Alice R. Bottom, both

THE Lenton season begins today. We are prepared to fill orders for dried, salt, pickled, foreign and domestic fish of every description. Reliable goods at right prices. Canned Fish.

Salmon Steak, flat tins . Clover Leaf Salmon Steak . 20c Lobsters (Maple Leaf) . Flat cans 250 Sardines (imported) in oil, per can . 2 cans for . 25c Domestic Sardines, per can . 6 cans for 25c Mustard Sardines Mustard Sardines Smoked Sardines, in oil 12c Brook Trout in tomato sauce, per can . 120 12c Mackerel in tomato sauce, per can . Soused Mackerel . 3-1b. tin 20c Kippered Herring 18c Scotch Herring, in glass-front boxes 10c Codfish, shredded, per package . . 7%c Boneless Codfish, 1-lb. package . 1/4-lb. package Boneless Codfish strips, 3 lbs. 20c Mackerel, No. 1, each No. 2, 3 for • 20c 25c Small Mackerel, per doz. Cream Cheese, per lb. . 12c and 15c Sweet Meadow, per package . . 10c

Macaroni, the best, 3 packages for . Imported, 2 packages .

Salmon, tall cans

Cheese.

Fresh Eggs, 2 doz. FRESH FISH OF ALL KINDS RECEIVED DAILY.

Eggs.

Very Deliberate. Mrs. Sparks-Your husband is a very

Mrs. Sparks-Did you ever know him to do anything in a hurry?

Mrs. Cripp-Why do they call Roenigen's ight the X ray? Cripp-Probably because he has made his mark with it.-Pathadelphia North American.